A New Wavelength: Worship as 'Adjustment'

Personal & Group Study Questions

- Identify three aspects of Godward worship that are true for all times and seasons, regardless of context?
- Identify three expressions of Godward worship that are unique to Oaklands (i.e. particular & peculiar for our time and place)?
- When you think about the 'language of worship' what are some jargon terms that are ONLY used in congregational life and NOT used in everyday life?
  - What are some ways we can 'translate' worship into meaningful conversation in our congregation and neighbourhood?
- In your reading of John chapter 4, what does Jesus say about ...
  - The geographical focus for worship (i.e. where should we do it?)
  - The personal focus of worship (i.e. how does our individual niche in community/culture affect our understanding?)
  - The personal response of worship (i.e. how can I respond to unexpected rescue?)
- What might God be saying to us as congregation at Oaklands about creatively responding to him together in ALL aspects of life? (Please feel free to give Daniel your ideas☺)
