From the Sublime to the Ridiculous:

Worship in the 'Throneroom' & in the Grit of Real Life

Group Study Questions

- What's the 'biggest' experience of God you're ever had (i.e. not the bigness of YOUR situation but the sheer grandeur of God)? Be specific.
 - Describe the context of your experience (eg. reading scripture, appreciating creation, ...)
- Was your 'big' experience solo or with other people?
- What would you consider to be the 'small' areas of your life that are beneath God's dignity? Be realistic and honest.
 - Are these 'small' areas shameful or too 'earthy' for God's notice?
- From your reading of Psalm 103, what should occupy our thinking about God? What occupies God's thinking about us?
- What are some practical ways that you can stretch yourself to embrace worship (affirming God's worth) both grandly and intimately?
- What might God be saying to us as congregation at Oaklands about the scope and practice of worship together?
