*From the Sublime to the Ridiculous:
Worship in the 'Throneroom' & in the Grit of Real Life*
Group Study Questions

- What's the 'biggest' experience of God you're ever had (i.e. not the bigness of YOUR situation but the sheer grandeur of God)? Be specific.
  - Describe the context of your experience (eg. reading scripture, appreciating creation, ...)
- Was your 'big' experience solo or with other people?
- What would you consider to be the 'small' areas of your life that are beneath God's dignity? Be realistic and honest.
  - Are these 'small' areas shameful or too 'earthy' for God's notice?
- From your reading of Psalm 103, what should occupy our thinking about God? What occupies God's thinking about us?
- What are some practical ways that you can stretch yourself to embrace worship (affirming God's worth) both grandly and intimately?
- What might God be saying to us as congregation at Oaklands about the scope and practice of worship together?

O LORD God Almighty, who is like you?
 You are mighty, O LORD, and your faithfulness surrounds you.
 You rule over the surging sea;
 when its waves mount up, you still them.
Psalm 89:8-9

GET ACQUAINTED WITH OUR LIBRARIANS:

Head to the library and thank our librarians for all their hard work and devotion. While you are there browse the shelves and ask their advice on just the right book for you to read.

Thanks from Steve:

To everyone who showed up to the Redliners Car Club night and gave their support to make it a wonderful night ....I thank you.

There are 2 options.

1. We are seeking summer leaders for summer UDK. There is a signup sheet in the foyer for each week. Some youth will be assigned each week to help you. The kids start upstairs in the sanctuary. Then there is a program for them.

2. The kids will stay in church for the whole service and it will be a family friendly service. The kids will be given some work sheets to work on. (this is the option if we don't get volunteers)

Call Sally if you have questions.
