We and Thee:
Persons Encountering a Personal God
Group Study Questions

- When you reflect about God (both as a group and as individuals), are you more inclined to think about who he is or what he does?
- From your reading of Exodus 3: 1-15, what specific things do you learn about God's personality? (If it helps, use Exodus 3 to inform a 'personality profile' for God—what is he like? What isn't he like?)
- In congregational life and ministry, what differences of perspective are there between regarding people as 'human resources' and viewing them as 'persons'?
- What are some practical ways that God's personality gets mentored in us? Be specific.
- How might our private devotion and congregational worship better foster human persons encountering a personal God?

Nursery/Toddlers: We desperately need more volunteers to babysit with this age group. The two age groups will be combined from June to September. Please call Sally in the office this week if you are able to help babysit once every couple of months. This is an essential part of our church.

PRAYER:

The prayer room will be left set up to enhance your prayer. You are welcome to come during office hours to pray. We will be continuing with this prayer focus on our May 14th day of prayer.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH OUR LIBRARY:

Please look in the 242 section for the following 2 books:

- 1) The Glorious Names of God ~ each devotional focuses our worship on a different name of God: Door, Way, Truth, Life, Lord, Redeemer, Rock
- 2) by Joni Eareckson Tada ~ "A Quiet Place in a Crazy World" ~ drawing near to God through Prayer & Praise lost and found – there are quite a number of winter clothing items in the bin at the Cedar Hill Door. Check it out now before next winter when you wonder where your warm clothes are.
