Listen Up! Worship as Prophetic Witness
Group Study Questions

- Why is worship so subversively hopeful for our culture and world?
- How are missions and worship intricately woven together?
- Through our worship at Oaklands what are some things we must stand in refusal to? What are some things we must proclaim as good and great?
- What encounters with God in your life/Oaklands as a church have been a prophetic witness to others?
- Discuss different ways of group worship outside of the typical church service/liturgy context. Try one.
- How can we at Oaklands join in with the rest of creation's worship of God?
- Read and discuss Daniel 3. What can we learn from the story of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in terms of worship as prophetic witness? Share some of your own stories.

There are 2 options.

1. We are seeking summer leaders for summer UDK. There is a signup sheet in the foyer for each week. Some youth will be assigned each week to help you. The kids start upstairs in the sanctuary. Then there is a program for them.

2. The kids will stay in church for the whole service and it will be a family friendly service. The kids will be given some work sheets to work on. (this is the option if we don't get volunteers) Call Sally if you have questions.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH OUR LIBRARY:

We have added 3 new titles by fiction author, Beverly Lewis, to our shelves:
